please note:

- ▶ All prices are subject to change. However, we update prices daily on the website and we will honor the price listed on the day of your order.
- ▶ We add new books to our catalog frequently. These subject lists are dated and if you have one that is more than a couple of months old you may want to check for new titles on the website.
- ▶ The books listed here are the books in our core collection. This means that they are books we carry and normally have in stock. We can additionally, for your convenience, obtain other titles you may need from other publishers, in the USA and overseas.
- ▶ You can check availability on our website. We do list some books that are out of print if they are titles that are in regular demand. We list them for your information, to indicate that they are no longer available.
- ▶ If books are listed as "Out of Stock," call us or email us to find out how soon they will be available.
